

- Economic interest in personal financing and those of their immediate family where the District decision results in the personal expenses, income assets or liabilities of the trustee, officer, or employee or their immediate family increasing or decreasing.

The Chancellor shall establish an Administrative Procedure designating the Board of Trustees and a list of designated employee positions required to file Statements of