Skills Department

~~1. Automotive Department full-time faculty members are not entitled to a guaranteed overload/extra pay assignment.~~

~~2. Available overload/extra pay assignments, as determined by management, shall be made on a rotational basis among qualified Automotive faculty members, starting with the most senior-qualified faculty member. Consistent with the Faculty Handbook, (1) overload assignments shall not exceed six hours per week of instruction, and (2) exceptions to this limitation require approval of the vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs and the appropriate Associate Vice-Chancellor.~~

~~3. The District shall not include, and Automotive Department faculty members are not entitled-~~ department chair and/or supervising dean.

- c. Faculty may be assigned to evaluation committees that require to conduct observations of in-person activities.
 - d. Full-time faculty with certain professional responsibilities may need to be in-person to conduct that work.
3. Full-time faculty will not be given a fall or spring schedule that consists exclusively of distance education classes or other assignments designated by management as available to be done off-campus. Exceptions to this requirement may be granted by the appropriate Vice Chancellor. Any such decision shall be on an individual case-by-case appraisal. Any decision(s) are non-precedent setting and non-grievable.
 4. Part-time faculty will not normally be given a fall or spring schedule that consists exclusively of distance education classes or other assignments designated by management as available to be done off-campus. Exceptions to this requirement may be granted by the supervising Dean. Any such decision shall be on an individual case-by-case appraisal. Any decision(s) are non-precedent setting and non-grievable.
